GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO AMERICAN LIBRARIES, 1919

The following list of gifts and bequests to American libraries includes all gifts of money, buildings, sites, books, and miscellaneous and undescribed items, which have been reported to the American Library Association for the year 1919.

Gifts of money (or of property whose value has been definitely estimated in money) totaled $1,951,171, exclusive of contributions to the Library War Service fund, which will be separately reported, and exclusive of any grants from the Carnegie Corporation. The absence of considerable gifts from the Carnegie Corporation is of course noticeable, and chiefly due to the fact that funds were diverted to other purposes during the war period.

The largest single gift of the year was the bequest to the public library of Ottumwa, Iowa, of $600,000, by the will of J. T. Hackworth, his estate to become available for library purposes at the death of his widow.

The library of the University of Michigan received from William Clements, regent of the university, a collection of early Americana valued at $500,000; and this library was also the recipient of a lease of Detroit property, valued at $200,000, from Levi Barbour. An interesting item of the year was also the bequest of a collection of Irish literature valued at $25,000, which the University of Notre Dame received from William J. Onahan, of Chicago. The sum of $80,000 was received by the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, toward the erection of a library building, from an anonymous donor.

The following is the annual summary:

Gifts of money (not including amounts received for Library War Service)	$1,937,605
Number of volumes donated.....	63,045
Sites (where money value was not quoted)	8
Buildings (money value not quoted)	3

Miscellaneous and undescribed items 33

Unless otherwise stated the gift is to the public library of the place indicated.
